

IT'S AN OPOSSUM BIRTHDAY OPEN HOUSE!

Illustration by Sara M. Lo Presti, © Pamela A. Lefferts: From Pouch to Couch: Why Lavender the Opossum Lives in a House

When: SUNDAY, JUNE 4 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Where: Ferncroft Wildlife Rescue, 661 Route 171, Woodstock, CT

BELLA

MANGO

SHERMAN

BABIES (JOEYS)

Donation - $10.00/pp - FREE for children 8 and under. (Children must be accompanied by an adult)

Registration requested Parking is limited (Carpool if possible)

Meet 3-year-old BELLA 2-year-old MANGO and the baby of the trio, 1-year-old SHERMAN
There will likely be rescued BABY OPOSSUMS (joeys) on the premises.

LIVE PROGRAMS

11AM - Horizon Wings Raptor Rehabilitation and Education Meet a Bald Eagle Owls & Birds of Prey

Noon - Riverside Reptiles Education Center Reptiles, Tortoise, Snakes, Wow!

1 PM Ferncroft Wildlife Rescue - Get to know our Opossums!

Talk with Rangers from The Last Green Valley

Join The Connecticut Audubon Society Center at Pomfret

Enjoy tours of the rescue, raffle baskets.

PLEASE Pre-Register - space is limited! - Limited parking

REGISTRATION Email: leffertswh@msn.com

RESERVATIONS (donation pre-pay)

PAYPAL <https://www.paypal.me/FerncroftWildlifeRes>

VENMO. venmo.com/u/Pam-Lefferts

Wildlife are not pets!

Ferncroft specializes in opossum rescue, rehabilitation, and release. As a 501(c)3 State & Federal licensed wildlife facility, Ferncroft is permitted to keep non-releasable opossums who are unable to survive in the wild.